DISCLAIMER

Vision X Global is a decentralized community platform that leverages blockchain-based smart contracts to distribute bonuses transparently, fairly, and automatically. While the platform is designed with security and fairness at its core, all participants must understand and acknowledge the following:

- Participation Risk - Participation in Vision X Global involves financial risk. All contributions and activities are undertaken entirely at your own discretion and risk. We strongly recommend that you fully understand the platform's structure and consult a qualified financial advisor before making any financial decision.
- Non-Refundable Contributions - All participant contributions made into the Vision X Global platform are final and non-refundable. Once a contribution is processed through the smart contract, it cannot be reversed or withdrawn outside of the platform's defined earning structure.
- EB Auto Pool Bonus Distribution - The timing of EB Auto Pool Bonus distribution is directly dependent on the pace of community growth. The faster the community expands and new participants join, the quicker the bonuses are distributed. There is no fixed timeline guaranteed for receiving these rewards.
- No Guarantee of Returns - Past performance of the platform or any individual participant does not guarantee future results. Bonuses and earnings are not guaranteed and are subject to the activity and growth of the overall community network.
- Security & Vigilance - While Vision X Global has implemented robust measures to safeguard the platform and its participants, users are advised to remain vigilant at all times. Always use secure devices, avoid sharing login credentials, and report any anomalies to the support team immediately.

THANK YOU

Together, we build a stronger, more empowered global community.
